

THE JEROEN ENSINK MEMORIAL PRIZE

This prize is awarded to

Rowan Ellis and Anu Karippal

for their 2022 submitted paper 'Child-centred methods for school-based WASH interventions: co-creating sanitation research and interventions for and with children' to Waterlines Volume 41 Issue 3. The paper is well written and structured, and the conclusions have the potential to lead to significant improvements in sanitation in low-resource settings in many LMICs.
